

TEACHER GUIDE:

Thank you for choosing to visit Harbourfront Centre! Harbourfront Centre is an innovative, non-profit cultural organization which provides internationally renowned programming in the arts, culture, education and recreation, all within a collection of distinctive venues in the heart of Toronto's downtown waterfront. Our School Visits programs are rooted in the inquiry-based learning model, and accommodate for a number of exceptionailities.

WHAT TO EXPECT FROM YOUR DAY?

When you arrive at Harbourfront Centre, you will be greeted by one of our Educators. Payment will be taken care of by our Registrar (if you are onsite) or our Educator (if you are offsite) during the morning of your visit. Your class will then receive a brief introduction to Harbourfront Centre. Your program will begin shortly thereafter.

ACTIVATION (Pre Visit Ideas)

- 1) Introduce the topic of urban art through the use of a mind map. Place the word 'urban art' in the centre of a page, and have students generate as many ideas, connections, examples or images that come to mind.
- 2) Assign your students an urban artist to research. Have each student prepare a fact sheet about the artist, based on criteria that you and your class develop together. Find a list of suggested artists below:
 - Banksy
 - Jean-Michel Basquiat
 - Keith Haring
 - Roadsworth

The following films and videos are very informative and great resources for the research project:

Roadsworth: Crossing the Line, Alan Kohl, 2008.

Exit Through The Gift Shop, Banksy, 2010.

The Universe of Keith Haring, Christina Clausen, 2008.

Jean-Michel Basquiat: The Radiant Child, Tamra Davis, 2010.

- 3) Ask students to consider what social justice issues they are passionate about. Have an open brainstorm about what social justice issues are and have students suggest topics they might want to explore during the program. Ask students to look through newspapers, magazines and other forms of print media to create a collage based upon the social issue of their choosing. As a way to get started, find a brief list of social justice issues below:
 - Animal cruelty
 - Gender equality
 - Substance abuse
 - Environmental degradation
 - Resource management

Curriculum Links

The Arts, 2009; 2010:

Creating and Presenting: applying the creative process to produce a two-dimensional piece; using elements, principles and techniques of visual arts to communicate feelings, ideas and understanding

Reflecting, Responding and Analysing: apply the critical analysis process

Exploring Forms and Cultural Contexts (1-8): demonstrate an understanding of past and present styles of urban art

Foundations (9-12): will use proper terminology, understand symbols and themes, describe past influences and understand conventions associated with urban art

Social Studies, 2013 (1-6):

Heritage and Identity

Canadian and World Studies, 2015 (11-12):

Cultural Characteristics and Identity

Key Inquiry Question:

How can you use urban art to impact positive social change?

EXTENSION (Post Visit Ideas)

- 1) Host a student art exhibition. Work with your students to consider where to exhibit within your school, how the pieces will be shown and what the overall theme of the exhibition should be. Write an artist statement for each piece and work collaboratively to write the curatorial theme for your didactic.
- 2) Have your students complete a procedural writing piece. This piece should describe the process for completing their urban art stencil.
- 3) Ask students to create a print media piece that uses their stencil as the basis for a larger ad bringing awareness to a social justice issue. Consider mounting these advertisements within your school community.
